

Data and Privacy File Guides

Passkeys Information

September 2023

File name Passkeys Information.csv

File description This file contains passkey information and the trusted device that initiated the passkey registration.

Why Apple keeps this information Apple retains this information to facilitate and audit user authentication using passkey information.

| Field Name           | Details                                                              |
|----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Created Date         | The date and time on which the record was created                    |
| Credential ID        | The unique identity for the passkey                                  |
| Device IP Address    | The IP address of the device from which the passkey was added        |
| Device Name          | The user defined name of the device from which the passkey was added |
| Device Serial Number | The serial number of the device from which the passkey was added     |
| Device UDID          | The unique identifier of the device from which the passkey was added |
| Domain               | The domain associated with the passkey                               |
| Hardware Model       | The model of the device from which the passkey was added             |
| Key ID               | Identifier for the passkey record                                    |
| Last Used Date       | The date and time on which the key was last used                     |
| Public Key           | The public key component of the passkey                              |